CAMPING SUPPLIES

IN OUR STORE you'll find scores and scores of articles particularly suited to camping.

FOODS of every sort in diminutive packages—tin, glass, wood and stone—handy for packing, handy to eat—little waste.

BASKETS for carrying—hamper and hand bags—experience.

OF COURSE you don't buy the experience, but it's of great value to you because knowing how to pack enables you to insure safe arrival, no breakage, no loss—whether transported over mountains on pack saddle or carried to the locker of your yacht.

THE ENTRY LIST ASSURES SPORT

Entries for Saturday's regatta events closed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the office of the Pacific Hardware Company, and are very satisfactory. The regatta promises to be the most successful ever held in the islands.

Several yachtsmen went out on the tug Eleu yesterday morning and placed the buoy for the first and second class yacht races off J. B. Castle's residence at Waikiki. The buoy is in five fathoms of water. The buoy for the third and fourth class races was placed off Kahlbi yesterday afternoon.

Oscar White wishes it stated that he is putting up no trophy for the Eva-Myrtle race. The race will be a purely sporting one and is neither for pots nor money but for blood.

Judge Wilcox contemplates starting his yacht Hawaii in Sunday's big race. He says that if his entry be not accepted he'll sail with them anyway.

The tug Eleu will be at the Wilder wharf at 10:30 on Saturday morning to take out invited guests and representatives of the press who wish to follow the yacht races. Only those who have received invitations will be allowed on board, owing to the limited accommodations.

NOTICE.

Races open to all; no entry fee.

All rowing races are to be governed by the Racing Rules of the Hawaiian Rowing Association.

Each entry shall include the name of the boat, or if it have none, the name of the person who enters it in the race.

The start in all the yacht races will be made from an imaginary line extending from the Light House to the Healan Boat House. The finish in all the yacht races will be an imaginary line from the Judges' stand to Wilder's S. S. Co. wharf.

The start in all the yacht races will be made by the "one gun start," i. e. a preparatory gun followed by another five minutes later; all time to be taken from the last gun.

All yachts must carry numbers eighteen inches long in the lower luff of their mainsails.
